Public Presentation: Employers and the Living Wage

Join Alternatives North and Natasha Pei of the Tamarack Institute at noon Tuesday, April 24 for the online presentation, “Employers and the Living Wage—How Can You Make a Difference?”

The presentation takes place in the ground floor training room of the North Star Building, 4910—53rd Street.

Natasha Pei will examine what it really means to make ends meet without a living wage and provide an overview of living wage communities across the country. Discussion of the results of a living wage will share stories of success, and speak to employer participation and benefits from the living wage.

The living wage movement is taking root and rapidly spreading across Canada and internationally. There are currently living wage initiatives in more than 60 communities throughout nine provinces and territories.
